

Revival Continues in Baptist Church

The Revival at Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church will continue through Sunday. Evangelist Dr. Dale Cowling has proven to be a popular speaker. At last Sunday evening service, he spoke on "the Christian Home." Climax of the service came with the families present dedicating their homes to be completely Christian. Dr. Cowling will speak at all services through Sunday.

Thursday will be Junior Night. Friday will be Intermediate Night. Sunday will be "High Attendance Day in Sunday School and 'Pack the Pew' Night in Training Union. Week night services begin at 7:30 p.m. Special music, directed by Edwin Isbell, has been a feature at every service. A nursery is provided at all services.

Dynamic Living Class Will Meet Tonight

The Dynamic Living Class of the Religious Science Teachings will hold a meeting tonight at 7:30 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Taylor, 5650 Lewis st., North Long Beach.

Mrs. Lorraine Moir will have charge of the discussion period in which all will take part concerning the teaching of Dr. Ernest Holmes.

Anyone interested in the Science of Mind is invited to attend these meetings, held weekly.

Baptist Revival Starts Saturday

The First Baptist Church of Lomita will start a revival series beginning Saturday and continuing through August 10. Rev. J. W. Hardin, pastor, announces a preparation and get-acquainted time for Saturday evening at 7:30.

Composing the evangelist team are Peter McLeod, evangelist; Walter George, associate; Dick Wallner, music director; Betty Nichols, pianist; Martha Fluke, organist.

Peter McLeod is from Scotland, single and 20, and according to Rev. Hardin, a dynamic personality, widely sought as a youth evangelist.

Wallner is the local choir director of the church and will lead the congregational singing during revival services.

Walter George is a guest member of a team from Memphis, Tennessee and Grand Canyon College in Phoenix. He will do solo and special musical arrangements and assist with preaching and visitation. He presently serves as minister of music at the Elsinor Baptist Church in Phoenix.

Revival Breakfast
The Lomita church is cooperating with the Southern Baptist Church of the Los Angeles Association in a simultaneous crusade.

On Friday morning they will serve as hosts to all cooperating pastors, evangelists, and team members, at a revival breakfast at 8 a.m.

To Mark Fourth Anniversary

Members of the First Christian Church of Torrance will mark the special event Sunday, of the fourth anniversary since their call to Rev. Milton Sippel to fill their pulpit. Commemorating services will be held at both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services.

Rev. Sippel will repeat his first sermon at the local church, "I Believe."

Rev. and Mrs. Sippel, Mary and Harry, have just returned from a vacation trip spent in the midwest. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Leon Mason (the former Martha Sippel) in Rochester, Minnesota.

Role of Mental Health

"The Role of Mental Health in Liberal Religion" will be the topic of speaker James May at Sunday (Aug. 31) services, of the Pacific Unitarian Church.

The speaker is a former director of the Family Service Association of Orange County. He is now engaged in private practice as a social case worker in Santa Ana.

Church services begin at 11 a.m. at 1610 Acacia Ave., Torrance.

Pastor to Preach Prophetic Sermon

Dr. J. C. Brumfield, pastor of South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane, will deliver a special message Sunday night on "Armageddon at Hand." This is announced as an analysis of the Middle East situation in the light of Bible prophecy.

The ordinance of baptism will be held at the beginning of the evening service.

Subject for the Sunday morning service is "What is the Greatest Sin?" Communion service will follow the sermon.

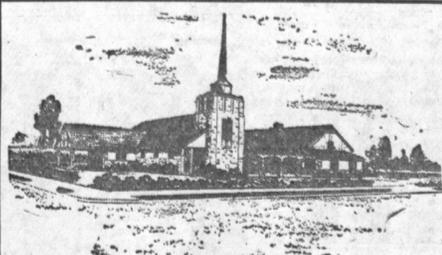

Next Wednesday evening at 7:30, Rev. Louis Tooley will be the guest speaker. He will report on missionary activity.

Rev. and Mrs. Tooley were missionaries to Brazil but returned to the US in '56 for medical reasons. In '57 they were appointed by the Conservative Baptist Missionary Society to work in the U.S. among the Portuguese speaking people. Their experiences in the missionary fields will be the topic of their reports.

The Southern California Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society supports four out-patient clinics and one hospital ward for MS patients.
